Writing

This proverb represents the will itself. Where there is a way to do what you desired to. Every milestone can be reached if you have a will to reach it. In my opinion this proverb is really true. I can't agree with it more. For instance, you can't catch a fish if you have no rod, right? You are unable to be a neurosurgeon with no knowledge of biology. Lastly, you can't even pass Russian National Exam with no effort put to your studying! It is impossible to gain something from doing nothing. You can wish, you can desire, sure. But can you fulfill your wishes? Are you willing to make them come true? If you're not striving to do your best, can't encourage yourself - you won't stand a chance to do anything. No ordeal, no intimidation.

Make sure to obey and remember this proverb. Its wisdom shall not be forgotten, it should be buried deep inside everyone's mind. Don't be lazy, learn everything by heart and in the end your efforts will rise like a star to the sky, illuminating your way to the brightest future.
